

AUSTRALIAN TECHNOLOGY NETWORK OF UNIVERSITIES

MICRO-CREDENTIALS SYMPOSIUM

Date: Thursday 28 April 2022

Click here to register via Eventbrite

Format: Zoom Webinar

For more, visit: atn.edu.au/events/mc-symposium

TIME (AEST)	Session	Topic	Speaker
13:45 - 14:00	Opening and Introduction		Mr Luke Sheehy (Executive Director, ATN Universities)
14:00 - 14:50	Panel 1: Micro-credentials for further and higher education Chair - Professor Liz Johnson (Deputy Vice Chancellor, Academic, Deakin University)	What do micro-credentials mean in higher and further education? How could/should micro-credentials interact with existing Australian qualifications and training?	Ms Claire Field (Principal, Claire Field and Associates) Dr Darien Rossiter (Higher Education and Online Education Consultant) Mr Troy Williams (CEO, ITECA) Mr Craig Robertson (CEO, Victorian Skills Authority)
14:50 - 15:00	Break	Videos of case studies
15:00 - 15:50	Panel 2: Where is the value for learners? Chair: Professor Shirley Alexander (Deputy Vice Chancellor and Vice President, Education and Students, UTS)	What is the value of micro-credentials for learners? How do micro-credentials really contribute to careers and/or skills?	Ms Kate Pounder (CEO, Technology Council of Australia) Mr Dom English (First Assistant, Secretary Higher Education, DESE) Dr Michael Healy (Head of Career Development and Employability, careerED)
15:50 - 16:00	Break	Videos of case studies
16:00 - 16:45	Keynote	International perspectives: Challenges and opportunities	Professor Mark Brown (Director, National Institute for Digital Learning, Dublin City University)
16:45 - 17:00	Reflections	Where to next? Ideas and provocations	Professor Sally Kift (Higher Education Consultant; President, Australian Learning and Teaching Fellows) Mr Luke Sheehy (Executive Director, ATN Universities)
Closing			Mr Luke Sheehy (Executive Director, ATN Universities)